

CG5 - Somebody Real

tom:

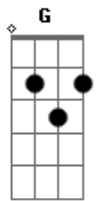

Listen closely to my story
 Won't be boring
 'Cause I seem something so inhumane
 We was doin' a little thievin'
 For good reason
 When I glitched into another plain
 And I learned some existential things
 I wasn't human, wasn't ever nothing
 My life is artificial, and I can't explain
 I wanna be somebody real
 My chains are revealed
 Under the world
 Unknown unfurled
 Shatter my life
 And delete my design
 But I will not yield
 How does it feel
 To be somebody real?

I don't matter in the slightest
 Listen closely to my story
 Won't be boring
 'Cause I seem something so inhumane
 We was doin' a little thievin'
 For good reason
 When I glitched into another plain
 And I learned some existential things
 I wasn't human, wasn't ever nothing
 My life is artificial, and I can't explain
 I wanna be somebody real
 My chains are revealed
 Under the world
 Unknown unfurled
 Shatter my life
 And delete my design
 But I will not yield
 How does it feel
 To be somebody real?
 I don't matter in the slightest
