 (com acordes na forma de D )
                            Afinação: D G C F A D [Intro]
                                                               When you got a clue
Gbm A Gbm A B D
                                                               Of all the pain and sadness that you put me through Point for me, 'cus evidently
I, I cant deny you're the reason that I cried every night
                                                               You did just what I expected you to do
And I don't know why
                                                               I let myself be vulnerable, I hold myself responsible
But you've never found your way out of my mind
                                                               For letting you stick pins into my heart
Participating in your games is something that will never make
                                                               In retrospect the younger me was too lovesick and dumb to see
                                                               That it was a disaster from the start
To be the one that you turned to the push and pulls and in and D
                                                               And now I wish I saved myself the pain
They always left me filled with doubt but I can't say that I
                                                               And looked from the perspective of my brain
'Cus that'd be a lie, and I dont like being mislead
                                                               I told myself that we could work it out
So I won't put it in your head that I'm the same
The tears that I cried, all the miscommunication
                                                               But it's too late to fix that problem now
And the testing of my patience drove me insane
                                                               Yeah it's too late to think about that now
                                                               And now I wish I would've second guessed
And now I wish I would've second guessed
                                                               The butterflies I'd get inside my chest
The butterflies I'd get inside my chest
                                                               Convinced myself that we were meant to be
Convinced myself that we were meant to be
                                                               Oh why'd I let you walk all over me
Oh, why'd i let you walk all over me
