

Charli XCX - Kingdom

Tom: A

( A D Bm E )

D Bm A D Bm E A
It's all black Your kingdom's turned me blank I'm paper and
E A D Bm E A D Bm
I'm snow I'm lost but I can't slow I'm lost but not alone

A D Bm E A D Bm
It's so light, the dark it burns my eyes My bones, they used to
E A D Bm E A D Bm
Glow But now I'm throwing stones I'm losing where to go

Bm D A
Shadows on my back are moving slow They twist behind like.

E Bm D A
White leaves in the wind And as I ride, these horses will say.

E Bm D A
Fly, Falling hard, falling high, through your arms.

E Bm D Bm E A
Shadows in my head don't need no light They stay through the night.

I'm locked up, your kingdom's like a drug The chains are made of
Bm A D Bm E A D
Glass, I'm breaking through your blood I'm never strong enough

Bm D A
Shadows on my back are moving slow They twist behind like.

E Bm D A
White leaves in the wind And as I ride, these horses will say.

E Bm D A
Fly, Falling hard, falling high, through your arms.

E Bm D A
Shadows in my head don't need no light They stay through the night.

E Bm D A
To every rose with bloody thorn It lifts you up and lets you fall

E Bm D A E
To rivers flowing on the factory halls

A Bm D E D
Your kingdom's come, it's waiting still The space between you'll never fill

Bm D A E
I tried but I could not change your mind

A D Bm E A D
Without you, my lips are turning blue The water pulls me

E A D Bm E A D Bm
Down, And drowns under your sound This silence booms so loud

A D Bm E A D
I breathed you out, I kept you out

Bm E
But if I could, I'd turn back around

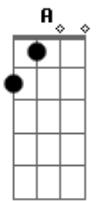

( A D Bm E )

A D A Gbm D A
I dance around, and I lost you now

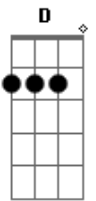

E Gbm D Gbm E Gbm
I breathed you out, I kept you out

A E A
But if I could, I'd turn back around
