I down on all my luck
Sometimes there no one there by your side

But I know that I can give up
Tough times I just take them in stride

Mmm, I almost there, only one more step
Left, right, left, right, left
I moving on, I got no regrets

verse

I said times are changing, tell me how can I keep up
Every time that I turn around there a wall
But I climbing daily, until I see the top
And I get up right after every fall
When you brokenhearted
And you lost without me
Yeah you gotta walk alone, yeah it true
Flash every smile cause I been lost for miles
I know you felt this way before too

Mmm I know it looks like it too far
But it nothing compared to how far we come
Walking down this boulevard
When the darkest times come right before the sun
