

Charlotte Cardin - Main Girl

Tom: C

I'm the call at one, that you just wanna visit

I'm a call for some kinda like an exit to your main girl

To your main girl, to your main girl

I'm the call at two, but I know, you never ask

'Cause I've been the one you assume will last past your main girl

Past your main girl, past your main girl

[Pré-Refrão]

Now I'm just a pretty face, who can help you

Now I'm just a pretty face, who can help you

Get your shit together at your own pace

[Refrão]

Don't leave me hangin' on, you misunderstood me all along

All risk and no gain and I'm a fool to love the pain

Don't leave me hangin' on, you mis- misunderstood me all along

A fool to love you, a fool to love you

I'm a fool to love the pain

(Dm)

I'm the call at three, but guess you thought I'd say

"Hey, there baby, come on walk my way"

Who's your main girl? Who's your main girl? Who's your main girl?

When it comes to four, I'm not there anymore

I'm technicolor painting love before your main girl

Your main girl this, insane world

[Pré-Refrão]

Now I'm just a pretty face, who can help you

Now I'm just a pretty face, who can help you

Get your shit together at your own pace

[Refrão]

Don't leave me hangin' on, you misunderstood me all along

All risk and no gain and I'm a fool to love the pain

Don't leave me hangin' on, you mis- misunderstood me all along

A fool to love you, a fool to love you

I'm a fool to love the pain

[Ponte]

I, I , I,I,I

Don't leave me hangin' on,boy

You misunderstood me all along,boy

I was a fool to love you, a fool to love you

A fool to love the pain

[Final]

Don't leave me hangin' on, you misunderstood me

You misunderstood me, yeah, don't leave me hangin' on

You mis- you misunderstood me, I'm alone and I'm a fool to love the pain

Now I'm just a pretty face, who can help you

Just a pretty face, who can help you

You misunderstood me, yeah

Now I'm just a pretty face, who can help you

Just a pretty face

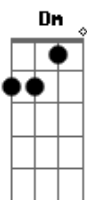

(A fool to love you, a fool to love you, a fool to love the pain)
