

Charly Coombes & The New Breed - Broken Glass

tom:

Intro: F7M Am G

G F7M Am
Every guess that we take is just a shot in the dark, unholy desire

G F7M Am
And all the trouble we make is only making it harder, until we sing in the fire

G F7M Am
Oh please take a look around, baby please let your heart out
I'm all alone and I can't wake up if I'm sleeping it all
Oh please, please stay here, baby you see what it is you fear

D Dadd9
But I'm alone and I cant wake up if I'm sleeping it all

Am F7M Em D Dadd9 D Dadd9
Strain your eyes for daylight, out on a dark night, you let it out
Break into pieces, like broken glass

G F7M Am
All the messes we make won't be swept away, they'll soak in your skin
And all the stages and fakes will get their own world one Day
Now

let the changes begin

G F7M Am
Oh please will you follow me, I wouldn't leave you if you left me,
But I'm alone and I can't wake up if I'm sleeping it all

D Dadd9 F7M D Dadd9
Strain your eyes for daylight out on a dark night, you let it out
Break into pieces, like broken glass
Getting drunk in the moonlight and caught in a catfight and getting ill

Am F7M Em Dm
Strain your eyes for daylight out on a dark night, you let it out
Break into pieces, like broken glass

[Solo] F7M Am G
F7M D Dadd9 D Dadd9
Strain your eyes for daylight out on a dark night, you let it out
Break into pieces, like broken glass
Getting drunk in the moonlight and caught in a catfight and getting ill
Break into pieces, like broken glass
