

Chelou - The Quiet

Tom: G

Find my hair upon the hillside
 Buried deap beneath the dirt
 Saw the things I tried to hide
 Cause I know how much they hurt

Silver linnings and tapestry
 Survive the test of time
 Broken dreams and memories

Chose your spoon, now chase your cat
 Mark my losses took my feats in vain
 Came away second best
 Tried to be different but turned out just like the rest

Silver linnings and tapestry
 Survive the test of time
