

Chevel Shepherd - Space Cowboy

```
So you can have your space, cowboy
Intro: Eb Fm Gm Ab
                                                            I ain't gonna fence you in
        Fm
                                                                     Eb
You look out the window
                                                            Go on ride away, in your Silverado
        Ab
While I look at you
                                                            I'll see you around again
       Cm
                                                                       Fb
Sayin' I don't know
                                                            'Cause I know my place, and it ain't with you
         Gm
Would be like saying that the sky ain't blue
                                                            Sunsets fade, and love does too
 Eb
                                                                    Eb
                         Fm
And boots weren't made for sitting by the door
                                                            We had our day in the sun, when a horse wants to run,
Since you don't wanna stay anymore
                                                            There ain't no sense in closing the gate
                                                                            Eb Cm Gm Ab
                                                            So you can have your space, cowboy
You can have your space, cowboy
                                                                               Eb
I ain't gonna fence you in
                                                            So you can have your space, cowboy
         Eb
Go on ride away, in your Silverado
                                                            I ain't gonna fence you in
                                                                    Eb
                Ab
Guess I'll see you 'round again
                                                            Go on ride away, in your Silverado
                                                                   Ab
                                                            I'll see you around again
I know my place, and it ain't with you
                                                                          Fb
                                                            'Cause I know my place, and it ain't with you
Sunsets fade, and love does too
              Ab
                                                            Sunsets fade, and love does too
Yeah, we had our day in the sun, when a horse wants to run,
                                                                    Eb
                                                            We had our day in the sun, when a horse wants to run
                            Ab
There ain't no sense in closing the gate
               Eb Cm Gm Ab
                                                            There ain't no sense in closing the gate
You can have your space, cowboy
                                                                             Eb Cm Gm Ab
                                                            So you can have your space, cowboy
          Cm
After the gold rush, there ain't no reason to stay
                                                                                F Dm Am Bb
                                                            You can have your space
F Dm Am Bb
          Cm
Shoulda learned from the movies that good guys don't run away
                                                            Yeah, you can have your space
F Dm Am
                    Cm
But roads weren't made to not go down
          Gm
                                                            You can have your space
There ain't room for both of us in this town
                                                            Cowboy
```

Acordes

