

Chi Lenno - You

tom:
 Your love
 I hope it will be mine
 Your eyes
 Can show me how you really feel
 So then I can know our love is true
 But darling try
 To see that I can't wait anymore
 There's no need for you to be afraid
 So please, please come to me
 Our time is now and we must not let it go
 I'll make you know the warmth
 Of my arms
 They'll keep you out of any trouble
 So please come to me
 I'm not trying
 To hide my feelings
 They must be shown everywhere

And only I know how I've tried to make you know them
 But when at last we are face to face
 You pretend not
 To see what I'm trying to do
 You know very well that the emptiness
 Only a true love can replace
 So you'd better lay on me
 And soon you'll forget the worries
 'Cos then no storm will kill our love

Every minute in my life
 Your movie plays in my mind
 'Cause you're the one I really want
 And the one I have waited for so long
