

Chloe & Halle - Don't Make It Harder On Me

```
[Segunda Parte]
                          tom:
                                                                    Bb Bb7M
Intro: Bb Bb7M Bb7
                                                          Why did we stop bein' together now?
Eb Cm F7
                                                                   Eb
                                                          Oh, I just remembered
Ooh, ooh
                                                                        Cm F7
                                                          How many girls you had
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                      Bb Bb7M
                                                          So you need to stop bein' so nice to me Eb
I need you to stop lookin' at me like that
                                                          'Cause a part of me has moved on
                                                                             Cm F7
We are just?friends?now
                                                          But a part of me is so weak
You already had?your chance
                                                          [Pré-Refrão]
             Bb Bb7M
                                        Bb7
So I need you to?stop sayin' the things you say

Eb

I don't wanna regret, no
                                                                      Bb
                                                                             Bb7M
                                                          If you keep actin' so sweet (so sweet)
                                                                      Bb7
                                                          I might just wake up and leave (leave)
                 Cm F7
The reason I didn't stay
                                                                      Eb
                                                          This boy that I pinky swore
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                  Cm F7
                                                          We'd be together for sure
            Bh
                                                                   Bb
If you keep actin' so sweet
                                                          I can't be thinking of you
           Bh7
                                                                   Bb7
I might just wake up and leave
                                                          When I'm alone with my boo
            Eb
                                                                    Eb
This boy that I pinky swore
                                                          If you smile at me again
                                                                 Cm F7
        Cm
                                                          I may do somethin' stupid
We'd be together for sure
         Bb Bb7M
I can't be thinking of you
                                                          [Refrão]
         Bb7
                                                                               Bb7M
When I'm alone with my boo
                                                                      Bb
                                                          Don't make it harder on me (don't make it harder)
          Fb
If you smile at me again
                                                                      Bb7
                                                          Don't make it harder on me
       Cm
I may do somethin' stupid
                                                                 Eb
                                                          I told you not to love me
                                                                      Cm F7
[Refrão]
                                                          And now you're growing on me
                                                                      Bb
Don't make it harder on me
                                                          Don't make it harder on me
            Bh7
                                                                      Bb7
Don't make it harder on me
                                                          Don't make it harder on me
         Eb
                                                                  Eb
                                                          I told you not to want me
I told you not to love me
          Cm F7
                                                                   Cm F7
And now you're growing on me
                                                          But you don't listen to me
            Bb
                    Bb7M
Don't make it harder on me
                                                          And you never did
            Bb7
Don't make it harder on me
                                                          Bb Bb7M
                                                          Ooh, ooh
        Fh
I told you not to want me
                                                          Bb7
           Cm F7
                                                          Oh, oh (ooh)
But you don't listen to me
                                                          Eb Cm F7
                                                          Oh. oh (ooh)
And you never did
                                                                        Bb7M Bb7 Eb Cm F7
Bb Bb7M Bb7
                                                          Don't make it harder
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Eb
                                                                     Bb
                                                          Don't make it harder on me
Never did, never did (ooh, ooh)
                                                          Bb7
                                                                     Eb Cm F7
                                                          Harder for me
                                                          And you never did
```

Acordes

