                                                                Let you know that you're always lovely.
                                                                Girl, cuz you are the only thing that I got right now
You've got that smile
           G
That only heaven can make
          \mathsf{Am}
                                                                One day when the sky is fallin'
I pray to God every day
                                                                                  Am
                                                                I'll be standing right next to you, right next to you
That you keep that smile
                                                                Nothing will ever come between us
                                                                                       Am
You are my dream
                                                                'Cause i'll be standing right next to you, right next to you
There's not a thing I won't do
                                                                We're made for one another
I'll give my life up for you
                                                                Me and vou
'Cause you are my dream
                                                                And i have no fear
And baby, everything that I have is yours,
                                                                I know we'll make it through
You will never go cold or hungry.
                                                                One day when the sky is fallin'
I'll be there when you're insecure,
                                                                I'll be standing right next to you, Woah-ah-ah
Let you know that you're always lovely.
Girl, cuz you are the only thing that I got right now
                                                                One day when the sky is fallin'
                                                                I'll be standing right next to you, right next to you
One day when the sky is fallin'
                                                                Nothing will ever come between us
I'll be standing right next to you, right next to you
                                                                'Cause i'll be standing right next to you, right next to you
Nothing will ever come between us
                                                                Stand by my side, side, side
'Cause i'll be standing right next to you, right next to you
                                                                When the sky, falls, down
If you had my child
                                                                I'll be there, i'll be there
You would make my life complete
                                                                You've got that smile
Just to have your eyes on a little me
                                                                That only heaven can make
That'd be mine forever
                                                                I pray to God every day
And baby, everything that I have is yours,
                                                                That you keep that smile
