Intro: Riff:

Verse Riff:

"Colorful and falling from your mouth? "like a lie...?"

Chorus:

Ending Riff:

Ok, now... bear with me. This little bridge part sounds like it's mostly synth & keyboards. However, most of us (being guitarists) can't reach over the guitar and start playing keyboard right off the bat, and I certainly can't tab for keyboard, so this is what it seems to be on your guitar (at least reasonably similar)

Even... burn... or fall... wander... mind... find... lie can...

Very annotated lyrics... just wanted to give you guys a good idea of where these notes go. Also, add in a faint one of these after every note in the bridge:

That's the tab, right there... If you happen to have any Cornell tabs around, I'd be much obliged. I'm especially looking for "Preaching the end of the world?", "Sweet euphoria?", and "Say Goodbye?", but anything off Euphoria morning would be gladly

Acordes

Bb
