                                                               (CGAmF)
With all my heart
                                                               With everything that I have with me
My soul and mind
                                                                          Am
                                                               I want to know you more
I want to know you more
                                                               I need to know you Lord
I need to know you Lord
                                                               Forgive me Father for all my sins
With all the strength that I have inside
                                                               I want to know you more
I want to know you more
                                                               I need to know you Lord
I need to know you Lord
                                                                      r
                                                               And I know
And I know
                                                               That I've wandered
That I wander
                                                               You bring me back to your fold
You bring me back to your fold
                                                               Back in your arms oh Lord
Back in your arms oh Lord
                                                               Yes I know
Yes I know
                                                               That I've drifted
Lord I've drifted
                                                               You guide me back to the shore
You guide me back to the shore
                                                               Safe in your arms my Lord
Where I am safe once more
                                                               Closeness
Closeness....
                                                               I need closeness
I need closeness
                                                               I need to be closer to you
I need to be closer to you
                                                               Closeness
Lessons...
                                                                Em
   Em
                                                               I need closeness
I need closeness
                                                               I long to be closer to you
I long to be closer to you
I want to know you more
                                                               I want to know you more
I need to know you Lord
                                                               I need to know you Lord
I long
                                                               I love
                                                               To love you
To love you
                                                               I want to know you more
I need to know you Lord
                                                               I need to know you Lord
                                                               I love to love you
