

Christone Kingfish Ingram - Rock & Roll

tom:

Intro: Bm G D

A princess cooking in the kitchen, playing solitaire

She been burning them stacks with a monkey?on?her back says?daddy ain't there

She been swinging bags?and picking up the slack and it ain't fair

[Refrão]

So I could sell my soul to rock and roll

So I could sell my soul to rock and roll

She made a deal with the angels and then never let go

So I could sell my soul to rock and roll

When I'm driving down the highway, when I want to let up

There's an angel on my shoulder with sweet tea driving in her old gray one

Saying play this song, but the heart is a road but don't give up

[Refrão]

So I could sell my soul to rock and roll

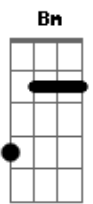

So I could sell my soul to rock and roll

She made a deal with the angels and then never let go

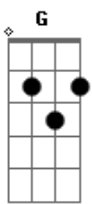

So I could sell my soul to rock and roll

For just a minute and a moment, before all the roar

Pride beside me here to ignite me when I'm finding that I'm all alone

With prayer crossed paths, but yeah you've been here before

[Refrão]

Go baby, sell your soul to rock and roll

Yeah baby, sell your soul to rock and roll

She made a deal with the angels and then never let go

So I could sell my soul to rock and roll

In the name of grandma, and granddad's ghost

And the poster of a woman, mama, when she kissed me and let me go

[Refrão]

I'm gonna sell my soul to rock and roll

I'm gonna sell my soul to rock and roll

She made a deal with the angels so I never let go

I'm gonna sell my soul to rock and roll

[Refrão Final]

I'm gonna sell my soul to rock and roll

I'm gonna sell my soul to rock and roll

We made a deal with the angels so I never let go

I'm gonna sell my soul to rock and roll

I'm gonna sell my soul to rock and roll
