```
QUkecifras
```

Chvrches - High Enough To Carry You Over

```
To build your words
                            tom:
                D (forma dos acordes no tom de C )
Capostraste na 2ª casa
                                                                High enough to carry you over
Intro: C Em D
                                                                And I never would've given you up (never would've given you [Primeira Parte]
                                                                up, you up)
                                                                Fm
C
                                                                If you only hadn't given me up (only hadn't given me up, me
No more barricades, slowly diffusing (au
Em
                                                                Am
I'll be leaving now, nobody's losing
                                                                Then I never would've given you up (never would've given you
                                                                up, you up)
If you could play a part, stay in resistance
                                                                                                  D
                                                                If you only hadn't given me up (only hadn't given me up, me
Every fault would fade into the distance
                                                                (au
[Refrão]
                                                                [Pré-Refrão]
                                                                        C Em D
Run if you like
                                                                And you are D
                                                                                               Em
All of the things that you left behind
                                                                If I only hadn't given you up
                                                                                                Em
                                                                If you only hadn't given me up
Hold me down
G
                                                                        D
You can't deny and I can't deny
                                                                And you are Em
Open your eyes
                                                                If I only hadn't given you up
                    D
I'll look away and you come around
                                                                Losin' my breath and leaving' the rest
                                                                [Refrão]
To build your words
High enough to carry you over
                                                                Run if you like
Am
And I never would've given you up (never would've given you
                                                                All of the things that you left behind
up, you up)
If you only hadn't given me up (only hadn't given me up, me
                                                                Hold me down
(au
                                                                You can't deny and I can't deny
Am
Then I never would've given you up (never would've given you
up, you up)
                                                                Open your eyes
                                                                                     D
If you only hadn't given me up (only hadn't given me up, me
                                                                I'll look away and you come around
up)
                                                                To build your words
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                High enough to carry you over
                                                                Am
No more clarity, only confusion
                                                                And I never would've given you up (never would've given you
                                                                up, you up)
Every focused thought, just an illusion
                                                                If you only hadn't given me up (only hadn't given me up, me
If I could see you now, if you would listen (au
                                                                Am
                     D
Every fault would fade into the distance
                                                                Then I never would've given you up (never would've given you
                                                                up, you up)
[Refrão]
                                                                Fm
                                                                If you only hadn't given me up (only hadn't given me up, me
C
                                                                up)
Run if you like
                                                                Then I never would've given you up (never would've given you
                       D
All of the things that you left behind
                                                                up, you up)
Hold me down
                                                                If you only hadn't given me up (only hadn't given me up, me
                                                                up)
You can't deny and I can't deny
                                                                Am
                                                                Then I never would've given you up (never would've given you
Open your eyes
                                                                up, you up)
                    D
                                                                Em
I'll look away and you come around
                                                                If you only hadn't given me up (only hadn't given me up, me up)
```

Acordes

Oferecimento Lojalele.com.br