

Chvrches - My Enemy

Tom:

Intro: Bb C Dm Bb C

I got no more time to hear what you think about me
 Because all your words are so cold, so callous, so clean
 In the moment you could be honest, you could wake up, up
 But your jealousy is more blind than luck

[Refrão]

And you could be my enemy
 And you could be my judge
 If you could start remembering all the time that you used up
 And you could be my remedy
 If you could show me love
 If I could stop remembering all the time that you used up

Ooh too-doo, ooh too doo
 Ooh ooh ah
 Ooh ooh ah

I got no more time to hear who you think we should blame
 Because all your words are so vile, so vicious, so vain
 In the end, we did all the damage that you could want, want
 But the emptiness will go on and on

[Refrão]

And you could be my enemy
 And you could be my judge
 If you could start remembering all the time that you used up
 And you could be my remedy
 If you could show me love
 If I could stop remembering all the time that you used up

Ooh too-doo, ooh too doo
 Ooh ooh Ah
 Ooh ooh Ah
 Ooh too-doo, ooh too doo
 Ooh ooh ah
 Ooh ooh ah

[Refrão]

And you could be my enemy
 And you could be my judge
 If you could start remembering all the time that you used up
 And you could be my remedy
 If you could show me love
 If I could stop remembering all the time that you used up
