

Cian Ducrot - All For You

tom:

Intro: Bm G D A

...I roll over but it's empty
 You used to lay here beside me
 I swallow my pride 'cause it's all on me
 ...Is it too late? Forgive me
 Did you mean what you said? Are you angry?
 Lost more than a friend, now I'm on my knees

I don't know why I'm praying tonight
 But if you can hear me
 Tell me if you hear me
 ...And I should have called
 And I should have tried
 And I should have walked you home every night
 And I should have kissed you ten thousand times
 Just to tell you I love you

I should have done it all
 All for you, baby
 But now I'm just a little too late
 To be what you needed
 But I hope that he is
 ...You took me around but we got nowhere
 'Cause you were naive while I was too scared
 So when we lit a fire, you run towards the flames
 ...And I start around and I watched you burn

Then arose up to claim you and left you in the dirt
 Kept my hands to myself like I kept my word
 Fool you once, never twice, I guess you've learned

And I don't know why I'm praying tonight
 But if you can hear me
 Tell me if you hear me

...And I should have called
 And I should have tried
 And I should have walked you home every night
 And I should have kissed you ten thousand times
 Just to tell you I love you
 I should have done it all
 All for you, baby
 But now I'm just a little too late
 To be what you needed
 But I hope that he is

I shouldn't have promised that I'd never fall
 But you saw the writing all over the walls
 I try not to cry in the places we'd go to
 But I still fucking care for you

...I hope that he calls
 I hope that he tries
 I hope that he walks you home every night
 I hope that he kisses you ten thousand times
 Just to tell you he loves you
