

Cimorelli - Sunsets And Heartbreak

tom:

Intro: C G Em Bm

The streetlights were gold

You were standing by my car

I jumped and you caught me

I'm hanging onto your every word and i can barely breathe

And you're so tall when i'm next to you

I look up at you and try to hide my smile

You walk me to my door

I've pictured this a million times before

I'm sitting on these stairs

Staring at the wall

That light's shining

But i can't see at all

Just tryna connect things in my mind

Wish i could have this my way

But i know you can't stay

You stand there in my driveway

You're a red light on a highway

And i'm drowning in the sound of your name

Between late nights and mistakes

I can't stand in this earthquake

I look up at the sky

The light's starting to fade

Here comes sunsets and heartbreak

I'm going down, i'm going down, i'm going down

Our story is sunsets and heartbreak

Oh o-oh

Sunsets and heartbreak (oh o-oh)

Oh o-oh

Sitting in my car today

It's like nothing even happened yesterday

If you were here right next to me

I swear i could replay it all day long

When i sing that song

Looked over at you

Saw your smile

And i was gone

This little town is magic

It's making me feel things i never thought i would

My names in your phone every night

You tell me bout your sister and your family

Gave myself away now you know

I'm in love with your laugh

Cause i can't even hold it back

Wish we could just stay here

But i know it's not real

You stand there in my driveway

And i'm drowning in the sound of your name

Between late nights and mistakes

I can't stand in this earthquake

I look up at the sky

The light's starting to fade

Here comes sunsets and heartbreak

I'm going down, i'm going down, i'm going down

Our story is sunsets and heartbreak

I don't wanna say goodbye

I don't wanna say goodbye

I don't wanna say goodbye

Maybe if i close my eyes

Maybe if i hold real tight

I won't have to say goodbye

Goodbye

Goodbye

You stand there in my driveway

You're a red light on a highway

Yeah

Between late nights and mistakes

I can't stand in this earthquake

I look up at the sky

The light's starting to fade

Here comes sunsets and heartbreak

I'm going down, i'm going down, i'm going down

(late nights and mistakes)

Am Em C G
