 The heavens and the earth
 Was held by nails upon the cross
 To bear the sinner's curse

 The wretched work of sin
 Restores our lost and dying souls
 To victory in Him

 To hold our lives within His grasp, in Christ we are secure

 He will never let us go - in Christ we are secure

He will never let us go, - the grip of God will hold

Even though our hearts are prone to wander
 We could never run beyond his reach
 Nothing in the world could separate us
 From the love of Christ our King

Even though our hearts are prone to wander
 We could never run beyond his reach
 Nothing in the world could separate us
 From the love of Christ our King
