Intro: Em C7M

Am7
 Northwest is where I'm headed,

C G
 Underneath the golden sky

Am7
 I'm searching for a wisdom

C G
 That every man seeks to find

Am7
 I've got wicked thoughts a brewin'

C G
 Many evil deeds I've done

Am7
 I'm looking for a reason

C G
 For a reason not to run

Em
 I've always been dark

D Em7
 With light somewhere in the distance 2x

Am7
 I've got no destination

C G

No place to call my own

Am7
 I'll explore the constellations

C G
 Till I find the course I mean to hone

Am7
 But come fever or come famine

C G
 Come the biting winter cold

Am7
 Just put two coins upon my eyelids

C G
 So I can pay the poor man's toll

Em
 I've always been dark

D Em7
 With light somewhere in the distance 2x

Em
 I've been so unforgiving

D Em7
 Stranded in old traditions

Em
 I've always been dark

D Em7
 With light somewhere in the distance

( D Em C ) 2x

Em
 I've always been dark

D Em7
 With light somewhere in the distance
