

Cody Jinks - We Get By

tom:
 D
 Stayin burnt out all the time
 Em
 Well that's a good way for you to lose your mind
 G
 Stayin low for too damn long
 D
 Well that's enough to wanna get high
 D
 Im not saying whats right or wrong
 Em
 Some folks need a little help getting along
 G
 I cant judge hell ive been stoned
 D
 But I know Jesus knows
 Em G
 And I get by
 D
 And I get by
 Em
 We all get by
 G D
 By the grace of God we all get by
 D
 Yeah my momma introduced me to God as a child
 E
 You know my dad he does his livin a little less mild
 G
 He'd rather sing those gospel songs on the
 Front porch anyway
 D
 My baby sister she married a man
 Em
 On the other side of where dad and I land
 G
 We laugh and joke and give him hell but he
 D
 Loves that little girl
 Em G
 And they get by
 D

And they get by
 Em
 We all get by
 G D
 By the grace of God we all get by
 Em G D A
 And everybody's waiting on that day when all is right
 Em G D A
 Well we've still got each other to make it through another
 night
 Em G D A
 And everybody's waiting on that day when all is right
 Em G D A
 Well we've still got each other to make it through another
 night
 D
 This corner bar is not a house of sin
 Em
 It's a place where all of us fit in
 G
 I've seen the same faces Saturday night
 D
 As I have on Sunday morning
 D
 Brother John's there sipping his drink
 Em
 He don't care what the others might think
 G
 He'll laugh and joke and finds it funny
 D
 That the others all drink alone at home
 Em G
 And he gets by
 D
 And he gets by
 Em
 We all get by
 G D
 By the grace of God we all get by
 D
 Staying burnt out all the time
 Em
 That's a good way for you to lose your mind
 G
 Staying low for too damn long
 D
 Well that's enough to wanna get high
