

Cody Simpson - Palm Of Your Hand

Tom: C

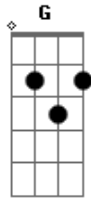

Like hidden gemstones in the warm sand
 We all wish to drift away
 Silver sunshine in my cold hands
 The moon's a mirror on my day
 Willow trees under the gold sky
 And California shows her rays
 A picture in my pocket from a long lost lover
 To keep with me on my way
 The more you wander, the more you learn
 The more the learn, the less you hurt
 No matter what you do, or where you stand

The world is in the palm of your hand,
 The palm of your hand.....
 Plant the seed and let the flower grow
 Stop stealing diamonds, cause they're, they're just a stone
 The world will give us all a equal chance
 It's all in the palm of your hand,
 The more you wander, the more you learn
 The more the learn, the less you hurt
 No matter what you do, or where you stand
 The world is in the palm of your hand, palm of your hand.....
 Hand.....
