At night they would go walking
 'til the breaking of the day
 The morning is for sleeping
 Through the dark streets, they'd go searching to see God on their own way
 Save the night time for your weeping
 Your weeping...

Singing la la la la la la la ley
 And the night over London lay

So we rode down to the river where Victorian ghosts pray for their curses to be broken
 We go underneath the arches where the witches are in there saying

"There are ghost towns in the ocean"
 The ocean...

Singing la la la la la la la ley
 And the night over London lay

God is in the houses and God is in my head
 And all the cemeteries of London
 I see God come in my garden
 But I don't know what he said
 For my heart, it wasn't open
 Not open...

Singing la la la la la la la ley
 And the night over London lay

 There's no light over London today
