Intro: Gm  F  Dm  C
       Gm  F  Dm  C

Gm             F                       Dm              C
Time it takes to break my heart if only I could figure out
Gm             F                     Dm                C
Time it takes to make your mark on the man that's running out
Gm                       F
I wish I could've turn the clocks around
        Dm                        C
But the weight of the world is pulling me down
Gm                             F
And everything was easy, only didn't know how
         Dm                          C
You don't know what you got until you fall into the ground
Bb         C   Bb
Time, time, time

          Gm        F           Dm        C
Oh, I can't sleep at night, every second counts
          Gm        F           Dm        C
Holding the wheel so tight, are we breaking down?
         Gm      F         Dm          C
I never thought I would want us to turn back around
        Gm  F  Dm  C
Are we out of time, time?
            Gm    F    Dm    C
Just give me more time
            Gm    F    Dm    C
Just give me more time (Just give me more time)

Gm                   F
Time it takes to break my heart
          Dm                      C
Just tell me how we could make it out
      Gm                    F
And look this way we've come so far
          Dm                     C
But then your eyes come with the doubt
       Gm                         F
And I wish I could've seen the stars align
         Dm                        C
Oh it was never gonna happen any other time
      Gm                       F
And everything was easy, oh when I didn't know you
                Dm                      C
You don't know what you got until it's gone into the blue

Bb           C  Bb

Time, time, time
   C                 Bb   C                 Bb
(Just give me more time, just give me more time)
           Gm        F           Dm        C
Oh, I can't sleep at night, every second counts
           Gm        F           Dm        C
Holding the wheel so tight, are we breaking down?
          Gm      F         Dm          C
I never thought I would want us to turn back around
         Gm  F  Dm  C
Are we out of time, time?
            Gm    F    Dm    C
Just give me more time
            Gm    F    Dm    C
Just give me more time
            Gm    F    Dm    C
Just give me more time
            Gm    F    Dm    C
Just give me more time (Just give me more time)

     Bb                            C
I wish I could've turn the clocks around
     Bb                            C
I wish I could've turn the clocks around
     Bb
I wish I could've turn the clocks around
              Bb
But all the weight of the world was pulling me down
Bb
Time, time, time

                        Dm          C
Oh, I can't sleep at night, every second counts
          Gm        F           Dm        C
Holding the wheel so tight, are we breaking down?
          Gm      F         Dm          C
I never thought I would want us to turn back round
         Gm  F  Dm  C
Are we out of time, time?
            Gm    F    Dm    C
Just give me more time (just give me time, just give me time)
            Gm    F    Dm    C
Just give me more time (oh hoo)
            Gm    F    Dm    C
Just give me more time (I wish I could've turn the clocks around)
            Gm    F    Dm    C
Just give me more time

Just give me more time
