

Conan Gray - Fight Or Flight

tom:
 G
 Something's gotten into you
 You don't really look at me the way you used to
 And I'm hoping it ain't true
 Every single rumor that I've heard of?you
 Say you were off with someone that I don't know
 Callin' other people on your telephone
 Kinda wish I didn't know
 Well, fight or flight, I'd rather die
 Than have to cry in front of you
 Fight or flight, I'd rather lie
 Than tell you I'm in love with you
 My eyes are welling up
 As you admit there's someone new
 It's my move, fight or flight?
 You tell me it ain't what it seems
 But, baby, this is lookin' like a crime scene
 There's clothes thrown on the balcony
 And you smell like perfume out a magazine
 I'm throwing all your shit outta my window

Telling you I wish that we had never spoke
 Baby, I already know
 Well, fight or flight, I'd rather die
 Than have to cry in front of you
 Fight or flight, I'd rather lie
 Than tell you I'm in love with you
 My eyes are welling up
 As you admit there's someone new
 It's my move, fight or flight?
 Now there's someone at my door
 Someone I've not met before
 They've got eyes like mine
 A pretty smile
 And they've been crying for a while
 'Cause they also didn't know
 That our lover loved us both
 Well, fight or flight, I'd rather die
 Than have to cry in front of you
 Fight or flight, I'd rather lie
 Than tell you I'm in love with you
 My eyes are welling up
 As you admit there's someone new
 It's my move, fight or flight?
