

Connie Talbot - Never See Me Cry

tom:
 I told myself that I don't love you
 But maybe that was just a lie
 I told my friends that I don't want you
 So they don't ask the reason why
 I'm scratching out your name
 Took all our photos of my window pane
 Got 10 missed calls, but I hung up them all
 You expect me to fall
 Oh not at all
 You'll never see me cry
 You won't even get the chance
 Cause the cards are in my hands
 And I aint' playing all your stupid games
 Go play yourself
 There ain't no tears left
 You'll only see me at my best
 No, you'll never see me cry
 I hope you end up old and lonely
 To see how I feel all alone
 I hope you tell your friends you want me
 So I can say I shut the door
 I'm scratching out your name
 Took all our photos of my window pane
 Got 10 missed calls, but I hung up them all

You expect me to fall
 Oh not at all
 You'll never see me cry
 You won't even get the chance
 Cause the cards are in my hands
 And I aint' playing all your stupid games
 Go play yourself
 There ain't no tears left
 You'll only see me at my best
 No, you'll never see me cry
 Ohh
 Scratching out your name
 Took all our photos of my window pane
 Got 10 missed calls, but I hung up them all
 You expect me to fall
 Oh not at all
 You'll never see me cry
 You won't even get the chance
 Cause the cards are in my hands
 And I aint' playing all your stupid games
 Go play yourself
 There ain't no tears left
 You'll only see me at my best
 No, you'll never see me cry
 Ohh ohh
 No, you'll never see me cry
