

Corey Voss - The King Is Here

Tom: A m [Intro] C Am

The earth is awakening, the mountains are trembling
 The oceans hold their breath for this Holy moment
 The heavens stand to their feet, as life like a river springs
 Up from a thirsty land, collision of God and man

And holy holy is the cry
 Of saints and sinners reconciled

Sing sing it out let the earth resound
 For the King is here, the King is here
 Shout shout it out for the hope we've found
 For the King is here, the King is here

(C Am)

The darkness is breaking now, drowned out in a sea of stars
 Your church is rising up, with fire that can't be stopped

And holy holy is the cry
 Of saints and sinners reconciled

Sing sing it out let the earth resound
 For the King is here, the King is here

Shout shout it out for the hope we've found
 For the King is here, the King is here

(C Am)

And holy holy is the cry
 That floods the heavens, fills the skies
 And from the earth unto the throne
 Eternal praise to Him belongs

And holy holy is the cry
 That floods the heavens, fills the skies
 And from the earth unto the throne
 Eternal praise to Him belongs

Sing sing it out let the earth resound
 For the King is here, the King is here
 Shout shout it out for the hope we've found
 For the King is here, the King is here

Sing sing it out let the earth resound
 For the King is here, the King is here
 Shout shout it out for the hope we've found
 For the King is here, the King is here

Oh the King is here, the king is here
 For the King is here, the King is here
