I was out on the radio starting to change
somewhere out in America
it's starting to rain
could you tell me the things you remember about me

Bm A E

I remember me
and all the little things that make up a memory like she said she loved to watch me sleep like she said,
"it's the breathing in and out and in and..."

Have you seen me lately?

I was out on the radio starting to change somewhere out in America it's starting to rain could you tell me the things you remember about me and have you seen me lately?

Solo:

Gtr 1 plays solo, Gtr 2 plays chords given, mostly as triplets:

E E
E E Gbm
A E
E
E Gbm A

Guitar 1 holds the last E chord from the solo

I guess I thought that someone would notice I guess I thought somebody would say something if I was missing
can't you see me?

Both guitar play this over the next two lines:

come on color me in come on color me in
give me your blue rain give me your black sky
give me your green eyes come on give me your white skin
come on give me your white skin
come on give me your white skin

Back to the chorus:

I was out on the radio starting to change
somewhere out in America
it's starting to rain
could you tell me the things you remember about me
and have you seen me lately?

Repeat the last line twice more, and end on E
