

Counting Crows - If I Could Give All My Love To You

Tom: A

If I Could Give All My Love

Richard Manuel is Dead

Standard Tuning

Note: denotes a single note (i.e. not a whole chord)

Intro: riff:

Verse 1:

Bm Got a message in my head D
 that the papers had all come A Richard Manuel is dead Bm
 and the daylight's comin' on D
 I've been wandering through the dark A now I'm standing on the lawn Bm (B) (Db) D

Chorus:
 If I could give all my love to you A Bm D
 I could justify myself A
 but I'm just not coming through G D
 You're a pill to ease the pain A of all the stupid things I do G D
 I'm an anchor on the line (Db) Bm
 of a clock that tells the time G
 riff over A A G D (play first 1/2 of intro G D)

that is running out on you

Verse 2:

Bm It was cold when I awoke D
 and the day was halfway done A Nearly spring in San Francisco Bm
 and I cannot feel the sun D
 You were sleeping next to me A
 but I knew that you'd be gone Bm (B) (Db) D

Repeat Chorus

Lead-in to solo:

Solo chords: (key of A, I think)

Bm D A E
Bm D A G D

Verse 3:

Bm Take some time before you go D
 To think of Mondays coming down A
 and the people that you knew E
 and the ones that aren't around Bm
 You've been fading day to day D
 I've been moving town to town Bm D

Repeat Chorus twice

(skip the intro riff between these repeats)

End with a variation on Riff 1 (it's a really easy variation)
