                                                                       D7
                                                             Am7
Step out the front door like a ghost
                                                            Mama's little baby better get herself in
                        Fm7
Into the fog where no-one notices
                                                            Out of the lightning
The contrast of white on white.
                                                                C(AddD)
                                                            She says, "It's only in my head."
                                                               C(AddD)
            C(AddD)
                                                                              D
And in in between the moon and you
                                                            She says, "shh...I know it's only in my head."
Angels get a better view
                                                                   C(AddD)
                                                            But the girl on the street by the parking lot
      Fm7
Of the crumbling difference between wrong and right.
                                                            says: "Man, you should try to Take a shot
                                                            Fm7
I walk in the air between the rain
                                                            Can't you see my walls are crumbling?"
Through myself and back again.
                                                                    C(AddD)
                                                            Then she looks up at the building
Where? I don't know.
                                                            Say's she's thinking of jumping
C(AddD)
                                                                          Fm7
Maria says she's dying.
                                                            She says she's tired of life;
Through the door I hear her crying?
                                                            She must be tired of something.
       Fm7 G
       I don't know
                                                                             D
                                                            Round here she's always on my mind
Round here we always stand up straight
                                                                   CD
       C D
                                                            Round here I got lots of time
Round here, something radiates.
                                                            Round here we're never sent to bed early
C(AddD)
Maria came from Nashville with a suitcase in her hand
                                                            Man, nobody makes us wait
              Fm7
                                                                    C D
She said she'd like to meet a boy who looks like Elvis round here we stay up very, very, very, very late.
She walks along the edge where the ocean meets the land
                                                            I can't see nothin', nothin'
            Em7
Just like she's walking on a wire in the circus
                                                            Around here
 C(AddD)
She parks her car outside of my house takes her clothes off,
                                                              You catch me if I'm falling,
                                                            You catch me if I'm falling,
She say's she's close to understanding Jesus
      C(AddD)
She knows she's more than just a little misunderstood
                                                            Will you catch me cause I'm falling down on you
She has trouble acting normal when shes nervous
                                                                        C(AddD)
                                                            I said I'm under the gun
                D
Round here we're carving out our names
                                                                  Em7
                                                            Around here
Round here we all look the same
                                                                             C(AddD)
                                                            Oh, man I said I'm under the gun
       C
Round here we talk just like lions
                                                                   Fm7
                                                            Around here
                                                             And I can't see nothin',
But we sacrifice like lambs
Round here she's slipping through my hands
                                                            Nothin'
                                                                        {\sf Em}
                                                            Round
                                                                      here.
