

Cream - Spoonful

Tom: E

The Woman Tone Yeah! Lead Break

And Everyhting, in my opinion is pretty much right, there might be a few mistakes but I don't think that there are. I tabbed this because I haven't seen anybody tab it before favorite band! No, I did not copy this from a book.

Here the best part, in my opinion.

Bend The 8th fret note up with your first finger only a little bit to give it some flavor. Let all of the Open string notes ring when playing the lead break.

let this chord ring

After the solo it just goes back to the normal song. You will probably be able to figure out the rest becuae it is just like the beginning and the verse. Thats it, I hope you like it!

this riff is like a slow walkdown, not a fast paced lick.

B=Bend
R=release
p=Pulloff
h=hamer on /=slide

Spoooooooooooooooooonful!
