Creed - Torn

```
Tom: G

         TAB SYMBOLS USED:

           h = hammer-on p = pull-off
           / = slide up
           \ = slide down
           b = bend note
           r = release bend
            = palm muted note
Intro: ------
   First you play this:

   The second time it's played like this: [in the verses it's also played
   like it is below, we'll call it Riff 1]
     RIFF 1:

   VERSE 1: [play RIFF 1 above]

   Peace, is what they tell me
   Love, am I unholy
   Here's the tab for the pre-chorus. It's played with distortion. Where there's a  under the tab it means that the note above it is palm-muted.
       F                    C                    D

                    D

   PRE-CHORUS: [play the tab above twice]

   Lies are what they tell me
   Despise you that control me
   In the chorus you just strum chords and then there's one little fill. We'll call it Fill 1.
     FILL 1:

   CHORUS:
   -------
       F       C        G
   The peace is dead in my soul
          D2               Bb
   I have blamed the reason for
      F2         A      [play FILL 1]
   My intentions   poor
   F            C
     Yes I'm the one who
   G          D2
     The only one who
   Bb           F2     A     [play FILL 1]
     Would carry on this  far
   [play RIFF 1 once before starting verse 2]
   VERSE 2: [play like verse 1]

   Torn, I'm filthy
   Born, in my own misery
   PRE-CHORUS: [play like first pre-chorus]

   Stole all that you gave me
   Control you claim you save me
   CHORUS: [play like first chorus]
   -------
   The peace is dead in my soul
   I have blamed the reason for
   My intentions poor
   Yes I'm the one who
   The only one who
   Would carry on this far
   BRIDGE:
   -------
     PART 1: [play palm-muted]

   Now here's part 2 of the bridge:
     PART 2:

   OK, you play PART 2 of the bridge 3 times.
   The first time you play it, sing 'Peace in my head'
   The second time you play it, sing 'Lord in my head'
   The third time you play it, sing 'Lies in my head'
   INTERLUDE:

   vocals sing 'aaaaaaaaaaaaah'
   In the next chorus, the guitar is clean. It also plays the chords
   a little differently. The chords that are different are:
                           DADGBE
F is now played as (3335xx)
G is now played as (5557xx)

   CHORUS: [clean guitar]
   -------
       F       C        G
   The peace is dead in my soul
          D2               Bb
   I have blamed the reason for
      F2         A        G
   My intentions   poor
   F            C
     Yes I'm the one who
   G          D2
     The only one who
   Bb           F2     A     [play FILL 1]
     Would carry on this  far      |
                                You start the distortion again
                                when you play FILL 1
   CHORUS: [play like the first and second choruses]
   -------
   The peace is dead in my soul
   I have blamed the reason for
   My intentions poor
   Yes I'm the one who
   The only one who
   Would carry on this far
   OUTRO:
   ------
   Start by playing PART 2 of the bridge twice, then you just play the intro, but is has some echo so it sounds kinda strange. You can try playing it something like this:

   ...then just fade out!
