

Cristiano Nichelle - An Old Guitar

tom:
 An old guitar
 Sometimes I close my eyes and in my mind
 Your face comes and goes
 Every night in my dreams I still remember
 The band on the road
 At winter days, her kisses made me warm
 And I've never felt the cold
 These lonely nights I do my prayer and God bless you Wherever you are
 An old guitar is trying to plays a brand new song
 But some chords make me cry
 And I'm so sad because I can't not forget

Some days could never die
 Sometimes it's hard to go on without you
 And my guitar no longer plays an old love song
 Maybe someday I can feel that love again
 But until this day, I know I have to be strong
 I have to be strong?
 If there's a way / to be with you again
 I really want to know
 An empty space is like a shadow in my life
 So deeply in my soul
 And every morning when the sun is on my window
 My heart wants to feel some hope
