Crosby, Stills and Nash - Suite: Judy Blue Eyes

You make it hard
                                                                          D
                         tom:
                                                           G
                                                           And you make it hard x3

                                                                          DG
Intro: D
                                                           And you make it hard
    D
                  С
                                                                                      G
                                                                                             G7
                                                           Friday evening, Sunday in the afternoon
It's getting to the point
  G D A7
                                                                              D
Where I'm no fun anymore
                                                           What have you got to lose?
 G G7
I am sorry
D C
                                                           Tuesday morning, please be gone I'm tired of you
                  G
                                                                            D
Sometimes it hurts so badly
D A7
                                                           What have you got to lose?
I must cry out loud
G G7
                                                           Can I tell it like it is? (Help me I'm suffering)
I am lonely A7
                                                           Listen to me baby
I am yours, you are mine
G G7
                                                                                G
                                                           It's my heart that's a suffering (help me I'm dying)
You are what you are
                                                                                            D
                                                           It's a dying, that's what I have to lose
 D G
And you make it hard
D C
                                                           I've got an answer
                          G
Remember what we've said and done and felt
                                                                             67
                                                                     G
  A7
                                                           I'm going to fly away
About each other
                                                                           D
   G G7
                                                           What have I got to lose?
Oh babe, have mercy
D C G
                                                           Will you come see me Thursdays and Saturdays?
                             D
                                            Α7
Don't let the past remind us of what we are not now
                                                                            D
                                                           What have you got to lose?
 G G7
I am not dreaming
  D
                                                                        D
I am yours, you are mine
G G7
                                                           Chestnut brown canary
                                                                 D
                                                           Ruby throated sparrow
C Am C Am
Sing the song, don't be long
You are what you are D G
You make it hard
D C
                                                                        D
                                                           Thrill me to the marrow
                G
                           D
Tearing yourself, away from me now
A7 G G7
                                                             D C
You are free, and I am crying
D C G
                                                           Voices of the angels, ring around the moonlight
C Am C Am
This does not mean, I don't love you D A7
                                                           Asking me, said she so free
                                                                         D
I do, that's forever
                                                           How can you catch the sparrow?
 G G7
Yes and for always
D A7
                                                                        D C
                                                                                             D
                                                           Lacy, lilting, leery, losing love, lamenting
I am yours, you are mine G G7
You are what you are
                                                           C Am C
                                                                               Am
                                                           Change my life, make it right
                                                           C D
                                                           Be my lady
You make it hard
