Intro: A A Dm

Dm C Dm C
oh hell trouble is coming Dm C F G
out here in panic and alarm Dm C Dm C
black shapes gather in the distance Dm C F G
looks like it won't take long Dm C Dm G
the first drops land on the window Dm C F Dm G
the first sign that there's something wrong Dm C Dm C A A light rain and a head full of thunder Dm C Dm C
which way, which way
Dm C F G Dm C Dm C
two days till I get to you
Dm C F G
I'll be late if I ever get through Dm C Dm C
where I go there'll be no kind welcome
Dm C
coming down upon me

F C
time will keep me warm
Dm Am
feel my face
F C
now the insects swarm
G D

in the lowlands
F C Dm Am
fear will take the place of desire F C G D
and we will fan the flames from on high F Dm C Dm C
try for heavens sake

the sky fell underneath a blanket the sun sank as the miles went by sit back with your head on the pillow when you remember it makes you cry ghost cars on the freeway like friends that you thought you had one by one they are disappearing

time will keep me warm
feel my face
now the insects swarm
in the lowlands
fear will take the place of desire
F C G
and we will fan the flames from on high

D D Bb A
