Workin mans blues rudely awoken as the sun was thrown up to the sky dreaded weekday mornings and i can tell you why cause its time for workin gotta put the days in to survive but it just makes me pissed all the swell that I missed when its predicted ten feet high when the swell is pumpin
 the swell is pumpin (x2)

I was nearly halfway there when I took the wrong turn but I knew I found myself at the point break contemplating on what to do so I made up my mind and i got on the line so I could hear my bossmans reply he said it just makes me pissed all the work that you missed when the swell is 10 feet high

 when the swell is pumpin
 the swell is pumpin (x2)
 whatcha gonna do now, whatcha gonna say you can go on doin whatever it may be but you know that your not foolin cause that dont matter to me cause you know that we've all gone and done it before called the bossman and phoned in well you can go to hell for 8 hours or have a whole day of heaven to yourself

 or have a whole day of heaven whole day of heaven to your self well i woke up this morning the swell was pumpin so you know what i did went to the point break and called my boss to phone in well you can go to hell for 8 hours

 or have a whole day of heaven
 whole day of heaven to yourself.
