

Dagor Sorhdeam - Victory Is Mine

tom:
 I'm drawing the limits
 To divide us in no-man's land
 Follow your aim or face the rage in my heart
 See the hate through your eyes
 They're lost in a halo of despair
 Mayhem is coming to their last b
 The fear will embrace the world. I swear

There is no more time to regret
 Now you must suffer in silence
 Don't run away from violence
 You just pray and engage them 'cause
 Breach in the silence with fire'n blood
 Reach out your path for glory
 Feast with the lords of the twilight
 Live till the end of times
 With pride this victory is mine
