

Dakota - Runaway

tom:

Well I can see that you're running faster
 Running from some kind of disaster in your heart

( Dbm C#2 )
 ( Dbm C#2 )

They say you're too young to know the feeling
 Still your head is reeling from the pain

( Dbm C#2 )
 ( Dbm C#2 )

[Primeira Parte]

Where you gonna to run to
 Where you gonna hide

( B Db Db7 )
 ( B Db Db7 )

Yeah, your momma and daddy don't know you
 While everybody's tryin' to show you why you're wrong

( B Db Db Db7 )

So you're packing your bags and leavin'
 You're thinkin' someday you'll get even with them all

( B Db Db Db7 )

Then you're out on your own for the first time
 You're lookin' back for the last time, how do you feel?

( B Db Db7 )

Where you gonna to run to
 Where you gonna hide

( B Db Db7 )

What'll you do just to keep you alive?

[Refrão]

Where you going to, my runaway?
 Where you gonna run to?
 Where you gonna run and hide?

Will you find the answers, runaway

In the dark of the night
 Where there's no one to hold your hand

( B Db )

[Segunda Parte]

Out in the streets, all alone and feelin'
 Just like you're never goin' home

( B Db Db7 )

Then it makes you start rememberin'
 Who you are and where you've been, my friend

( B Db Db7 )

Then you watch your sweet-talkin' Johnny dance
 He'll give you the world just to get in your pants
 You think he's in love

( B Db Db7 )

Where you gonna run to?
 Where you gonna hide?

( B Db Db7 Db7 )

What'll you do just to keep you alive?

[Refrão]

Where you going to, my runaway?
 Where you gonna run to?
 Where you gonna run and hide?

Will you find the answers, runaway?

In the dark of the night
 Where there's no one to hold your hand
