

Damh the Bard - Pagan Ways

Tom: G

G
Take a look at your TV screen
D
It's a window bright and clean
Am
another wife swapped
C G
What does it all mean?
G
elder brother your never wrong
D
show weak people acting strong
Am
so I look outside
C G
to see the green

D
Do you dream of drinking from the grail
Am
that the truth is held within a tale
F
And Arthur sleeps now,
C G
Ready to return?
D
Do you know that Jack lives in the green
Am
that things are never as they seem
F
And Life is nore than
C G
the money that you earn

G
Rhiannon rides her horse,
D
It's just a tale of course,
Am
An old story,
C G
Of times gone by.
G
But sit with me on this hill,
D
See how things become so still,
Am
And who is that Lady,
C G
Riding high?

D
Do you dream of drinking from the grail
Am
that the truth is held within a tale
F
And Arthur sleeps now,
C G

Ready to return?
D
Do you know that Jack lives in the green
Am
that things are never as they seem
F
And Life is nore than
C G
the money that you earn

G
Spring has come and have you seen,
D
The Morris dancers on the green?
Am
Just a bit of fun,
C G
To pass the days.
G
But there is magic in their dance,
D
The season's blessed and not by chance,
Am
So I raise my glass,
C G
To our Pagan Ways.

D
Do you dream of drinking from the grail
Am
that the truth is held within a tale
F
And Arthur sleeps now,
C G
Ready to return?
D
Do you know that Jack lives in the green
Am
that things are never as they seem
F
And Life is nore than
C G
the money that you earn
