

Dan Romer - Oh The Bliss

tom:

D

Bm

Bm

When the world seems bleak and cold

When your bones feel tired and old

When wind is howling through the trees

There's a shelter from the storm

There's a fire burning warm

You'll find it if you follow me

Oh, the bliss

Oh, the bliss

Oh, the bliss will set you free

Oh, the bliss is gonna make you see

When the world seems grim and dark

When the sky won't show a star

When fog is thicker than the sea

Travel through the blackest night

In the forest hides the light

You'll find it if you follow me

Oh, the bliss

Oh, the bliss

Oh, the bliss will set you free

Oh, the bliss is gonna make you see

When the world is torn by war

When the rain of bullets pours

When bombs fall like autumn leaves

There's a garden through the gate

Where the father keeps us safe

You'll find it if you follow me

And oh, the bliss

Oh, the bliss

Oh, the bliss will set you free

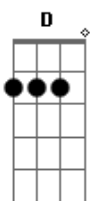

Oh, the bliss is gonna make you see

Oh, the bliss

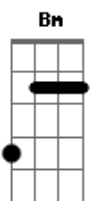

Oh, the bliss

Oh, the bliss
