Intro: Am G F

I could tell by the way you kissed my lips that day

There was something missing, something not the same

You were there, but you weren't, didn't care, didn't hurt at all

Said it was what it was, then the feeling of us was gone

I watched you fade away

But I turned my head and closed my eyes

And prayed you'd stay

And I told myself that it'd be fine

I wish I could have just said somethin', oh

When you said you needed time

I heard goodbye

Goodbye

It was way too easy to say those words you said

And the look on your face, I could tell there was nothin' left

Almost wished we were fightin', screamin', and cryin', but

Not a drop of a tear, didn't know how to feel, I was numb

When I watched you fade away

But I turned my head and closed my eyes

And prayed you'd stay

And I told myself that it'd be fine

I wish I could have just said somethin', oh

When you said you needed time

I heard goodbye

Goodbye

I could try to hold on if I thought I could change your mind

But I don't think I can when I feel like I feel tonight

I watched you fade away

But I turned my head and closed my eyes

And prayed you'd stay

And I told myself that it'd be fine

I wish I could have just said somethin', oh

When you said you needed time

When you said you needed time

I heard goodbye

Goodbye
