```
          Bm           Bm7         Bm7         A
There are few who would deny at what I do I am the best
       G           Gb       G   A   Bm
For my talents are renowned far and wide.
        Bm         Bm7         Bm     A
When it comes to surprises in the moonlit night
  G            Gb   G    Bm
I accel without ever even trying.
         Bm              Bm7       Bm7       A
With the slightest little effort of my ghostlike charm
     G          Gb       G   Am Bm
I've seen grown men give out a shriek
       Bm         Bm7     Bm7         A
With a wave of my hand and a well placed moan
       G          Gb           G   Am    Bm
I have swept the very bravest off their feet.
    G          Gb             G        Gb
Yet year after year, it's the same old cheer
      G       Gb           Em       A7
And I grow so weary of the sound of screams
    Bm  Bm7    A    G   Gb
And I,  Jack, the Pump-kin King
     G        Gb           G       Gb
Have grown so tired of the same old thing
    Bm        Bm7 Bm7             A
Oh, somewhere deep   inside of these bones
```

```
   G   Gb    Em       Gb
An emptiness began to grow
          Bm        Bm7     Bm7         A
There's something out there, far from my home
  G       Gb        Gb    Bm2
A longing that I've never known
       Bm        Bm7       Bm7      A
I'm a master of fright, and a demon of light
         G               Gb  G  Am   Bm
And I'll scare you right out of your pants
     Bm     Bm7        Bm7    A
To a guy in Kentucky, I'm Mister Unlucky
        G               Gb      G   Bm
And I'm known throughout England and France
    Bm         Bm7      Bm7         A
And since I am dead, I can take off my head
   G      Gb    G    Am   Bm
To recite Shakespearean quotations
   Bm         Bm7  Bm7           A
No animal nor man can scream like I can
         G          Gb G  Bm
With the fury of my recitations

G       Gb         G         Gb
But who here would ever understand
         G       Gb            Em       A7
That the Pumpkin King with the skeleton grin
       Bm   Bm7    A              A    G    Gb
Would tire of    his crown, if they only understood
     G           Gb       G    Gb
He'd give it all up if he only could
    Bm         Bm7 Bm7         A
Oh, there's an empty  place in my bones
     G          Gb      Em    A
That calls out for something unknown
    Bm       Bm7      Bm7        A
The fame and praise come year after year
     G       Gb        Gb7   Bm2
Does nothing for these empty tears
```
