

Danny Vaughn - Restless Blood

Tom: D

I still remember your hand on my shoulder
 I can still see the lines on your face
 Sometimes it seemed we didn't have a prayer
 But we had plenty of love to spare
 And that is something time cannot erase
 Father takes me on your knee
 Father gives the world to me
 Or anything he can
 Make me a man

And restless blood beats louder than hell
 Til you don't hear nothing but your heartbeat swell
 And I can't deny the burning of
 This restless blood
 I jumped school, tried to get somewhere
 He said, "Boy, it's a jungle out there,
 And everybody wants a piece of you"
 Now there's people talking, people trying
 They're all selling, I ain't buying
 Stand my ground
 Like you taught me to
 And restless blood beats louder than hell

Til you don't hear nothing but your heartbeat swell
 And I can't deny the burning of
 This restless blood
