

Danny Vaughn - When You Walk Away

Tom: E

Here by your side, The candle flickering
 The t.v.'s still on, But you're not listening
 So I reach for your hand, And the smile that brings A whisper, Asking me to sing
 Oh, when you walk away, Oh darling, when you walk away
 Don't turn around to me, 'Cause I don't want you to see, Me
 this way
 Tremble at first, My voice it comes so hard
 I don't want you to see, Me come apart
 And then it all opens up, When you show me your heart
 Rising up, To push away the dark
 Oh, when you walk away, Oh darling, when you walk away
 Don't turn around to me, Cause I don't want you to see Me this way All the things I feel inside

All the anger that is mine, What a tearful lullaby
 But you brush those tears aside
 How can one that's laid so low, Lift me up so high? Where do I go
 To try and put things right? And if I tear out my heart
 Will the stars ignite? And to whom do I rage Against the dying of the light? On this a long day's journey, Into night
 Oh, when you walk away, Oh darling, when you walk away
 Don't turn around to me, Cause I don't want you to see, Me
 this way
 Somewhere I'm told, There is a world of grace
 That will take those hard lines, From your face
 But until that day comes, I'll be right here in my place
 Just a man, Just a kiss, Just in case
