

Danny Worsnop - Tomorrow

tom:
Capostrate na 1ª casa Eb (forma dos acordes no tom de D )

I'll never look the same in her eyes
She's so beautiful tonight
It's been keeping me awake for weeks
How to tell her about the future that I see

[Refrão]

So tomorrow I'm gonna break her heart
Tell her we've gone as far as we can go
And it kills me cos I know it's gonna hurt her
But it's my time to leave
She ain't done nothing wrong
She just ain't right for me
She deserves to find her happiness
And I only know one way to give her that
So tomorrow I'm gonna break her heart

[Segunda Parte]

I'll never look the same in her eyes
There's good in this goodbye
And all that I can hope for is that someday she might see
That she needs something better than the best that I can be

[Refrão]

So tomorrow I'm gonna break her heart
Tell her we've gone as far as we can go
And it kills me cos I know it's gonna hurt her
But it's my time to leave
She ain't done nothing wrong
She just ain't right for me
She deserves to find her happiness
And I only know one way to give her that
So tomorrow I'm gonna break her heart
( E Em D A E Em D )

[Refrão]

So tomorrow I'm gonna break her heart
Tell her we've gone as far as we can go
And it kills me cos I know it's gonna hurt her
But it's my time to leave
She ain't done nothing wrong
She just ain't right for me
I wanna wake her up right now and set her free
And this might be the last sweet dream she ever dreams of me
'Cause tomorrow I'm gonna break her heart
Tomorrow I'm gonna break her heart
