

Darlene Love - All Alone On Christmas

tom:

G

D
The cold wind is blowin' and the streets are getting dark
Bm
I'm writing you a letter and I don't know where to start
G
The bells will be ringing Saint John the Divine
A G A
I get a little lonely every year around this time

D
The music plays all night in Little Italy
Bm
The lights will be going up on old Rockefella's tree
G
People window shopping on Fifth Avenue
A G A
All I want for Christmas is you

(Tell me) I've got to know
Bm
Where do lonely hearts go
G A D A
Because nobody ought to be all alone on Christmas

Things are different since you've been here last
Bm
Childhood dreaming is a thing of the past
G
Maybe you can bring us some hope this year
A G A

Visions of sugar plums have disappeared

D
Do you remember sleigh riding in the snow
Bm
And dancing all night to "Baby, Please Come Home"
G
Today's celebration is bittersweet
A G A
There's mothers and children in the street

D
(Tell me) I've got to know
Bm
Where do lonely hearts go
G A D
Because nobody ought to be all alone on Christmas

G
I'm all grown up but I'm the same you'll see
Gbm
I'm writing this letter 'cause I still believe
G
Dear Santa I've been good this year
A B7 A
Can't you stay a little while with me right here

E
(Tell me) I've got to know
Dbm
Where do lonely hearts go
A B Dbm
Because nobody ought to be all alone on Christmas
A B E Dbm
Nobody ought to be all alone on Christmas
A B E
Nobody ought to be all alone on Christmas
