

Darlene Zschech - You Are Love

Tom: A

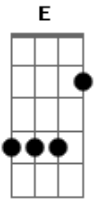

Here in this place of worship
 You draw me close, again
 All of my weakness is laid here
 You cover them all in your strength
 Here in your holy presence
 My heart draws close to you
 This altar is built out of broken
 And you come and breathe it all new
 You are love, love unfailing, love divine
 You are love, love that mends a heart like mine

Here in the timeless moment
 Angels are singing your name
 For your love endures forever
 Your always and ever the same
 You are love, love unfailing, love divine
 You are love, love that mends a heart like mine
 You are love, lifted high for all to see
 You are love, the heaven singing of your glory
 You are love, you are love
 Love that is healing, love that is trusting
 A love that demands, my heart and my soul
 A love that awakens my purpose and meaning
 Your love
