Dave Matthews Band - True Reflections

Tabbed by Scott Pearson

Yo everybody. Ok, Stephan busts out a lot in this song so it is impossible fo a bad bass player like me to figure it all out. I'll just give you the basic shiot that ya might need ta jam a little bit.

This is the main thing but Stephan doesn't play this. I would recommend leaving that to the guitarist.

```
I---6h7--------I
I--------5-7-5-I
I--------------I
I-5------------I
>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>
```

Ok, here is the song

You couls do this, he pretty much hovers over E fret 5 through out the song

```
I---------------I
I---------------I
I---------------I
I-5-55-55-3-0-5-I
```

Then here is the groovy climb thing somewhere.

```
I-------------I
I-7-5-2-1-0---I
I-------------I
I-----------5-I
```

For the next part I really can't hear whats going on but it goes something like this

```
I------------I I-----------I I-----------I
I------------I I-----------I I-----------I
I-5555555555-I I-777777777-I I-555555555-I
I------------I I-----------I I-----------I

aLL of those a crapload of times

do whatever ya want

Your whole life, is ahead of you

```
                I--------------I               I------------- I
                I----------5-7-I               I-------------
I
                I------5-7-----I               I-7-5-2-1-0---
I TWICE
                I-5-5----------I -------5------ I-----------5-
I
```

HERE IS A SIMPLE BUT NEETO JAM I LIKE TO DO NEAR THE END

I-2--55-55-7-5-2----555-9-I
I-------------------------I
I-------------------------I
I-------------------------I
```

Mess that up and it sounds cool too.

That's pretty much it. There is a buttload of variation too. Any questions or comments?
