Hang On To Yourself

This song is featured off of Bowie's -The Rise and Fall of Ziggy Stardust and the Spiders From Mars- album. It is quite simple and fun to play as are most of Bowie's songs. Before I write down the chords, I must explain that the chords G and B are played respectively:

G

B

The song with the chords are:

D-C-G
D-C-G

Well she is a <sup>Gbm</sup> tongue twisting storm, she will <sup>A</sup> come to the show (and the song ends...or whatever...) tonight

Praying to the light machine

She wants my honey not my money she's a funky-thigh collector

Laying on electric dreams

So come on, come on, we've really got a good thing going

Well come on, come on, if you think we're gonna make it
You better hang on to yourself

D-C-G
D-C-G

We can't dance, we don't talk much, we just ball and play

But then we move like tigers on vaseline

Well the bitter comes out better on a stolen guitar

You're the blessed, we're the spiders from Mars

So come on, come on, we've really got a good thing going

Well come on, come on, if you think we're gonna make it
You better hang on to yourself
