

David Bowie - Lady Stardust

Tom: A
Intro: A E

A Db7 Gbm D
People stared at the makeup on his face
A Gbm E Db7
Laughed at his long black hair, his animal grace
Gbm D
The boy in the bright blue jeans
A Db7
Jumped up on the stage
A E
And lady stardust sang his songs
D E
Of darkness and disgrace

A E D E
And he was alright, the band was altogether
A E D E
Yes he was alright, the song went on forever
Em Em
And he was awful nice
Em Em
Really quite out of sight
A E D E
And he sang all night long

A Db7 Gbm
Femme fatales emerged from shadows
D
To watch this creature fair
A Gbm
Boys stood upon their chairs

E Db7
To make their point of view
Gbm D A Db7
I smiled sadly for a love I could not obey
A E
Lady stardust sang his songs
D E
Of darkness and dismay

A E D E
And he was alright, the band was altogether
A E D E
Yes he was alright, his song went on forever

Em Em
And he was up all night
Em Em
Really quite paradise

A E D E
And he sang all night long

D Ebdim E
Ooh, how I sighed when they asked if I knew his name

A E D E
And he was alright, the band was altogether
A E D E
Yes he was alright, his song went on forever

Em Em
And he was up all night
Em Em
Really quite paradise

A E D E
And he sang all night long

Acordes

